On Sunday, June 24 there will be a training session for the men officers of the Lodge at the Pullman Lodge. The time will be from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM with a lunch break. Food will be available to purchase at the Lodge for lunch. These training sessions are mandatory for all officers, who haven't taken them within the last year or two. These classes are an excellent way to learn how to run the day to day operations of a Lodge. Also, this is the perfect way to learn about Moose Heart and Moose Haven. In addition, any male member 21 and over that would like to run for a position in the near future should attend.

As Moose members we are proud to be able to provide the Class of 2012 a place to safely celebrate their Graduation. To the parents, family members and friends of these students, thank you for helping encourage these students through their failures and successes. To the Class of 2012, we want to congratulate you for all the hard work you have put in to accomplish your goals. In addition, we would like you to have a prosperous and bright future. The Senders
Are Coming Back!!!!

On July 6th the Senders will again be back in the Ballroom. It's very difficult to get this great band in, because of members living out of the area. We actually have three dates that they will be here. July 6, August 10, and December 7. This is one of the best "Rock & Roll" bands in the Northwest. Mark your calendars, pull out the flip flops, shorts and summer tops to celebrate those "Hot Summer Nights" in the upstairs Ballroom on July 6. The cover charge will be $7.00 for the evening. These guys love the Moose Lodge and let's show them how much we love them.
