Oktoberfest Continues

October is quickly approaching and with it all kinds of activities around the Lodge. Everyone who came out for all the special dinners and our "Harvest Auction" during our opening of Oktoberfest had a great time. There was a little of something for everyone. Special "thank you" to all who fixed the wonderful food for the meals, the delicious auction goodies, all the bidders and for "Tim Morton" and "Lightning Larry" for running the auction. What a tremendous outpouring of support. Oktoberfest the "Celebration of Harvest, Home and Families" had a tremendous kick off. Be sure to check out all the new things going on throughout the Fall.

The Singing Mailman is in the House on October 12 & 13

Larry Dahlberg, "The Singing Mailman" will be in the lounge to play for us again. We've all missed him and are anxiously awaiting his return. Let's all come in to welcome him back after his accident earlier this year. Hope to see you all there!

Way to Go Kelly!

Kelly Nigro, our Education Chairman for the WOTM has been instrumental in procuring a donation from WSU of almost $1400 in books for youth. These books will be distributed to our girls in the WSNIMA house at Mooseheart and to the local Library. A big "shout out" to Kelly for all she has done. Word has it that she has already been working on another project. This is fraternalism at work for our youth. The Moose participates in many projects for youth.

In Memory of...

Sponsor a Dinner

If you would like to sponsor a dinner, by buying the meat to be served and having someone else prepare and serve it, please give Rose a call 1-208-553-4467. This is a win, win situation for all. A great meal is provided and the Moose doesn't pay as much for product that is needed for each meal.
