NOVEMBER VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

BARRY PEMBERTON is our NOVEMBER volunteer of the month. Barry has a positive attitude and willingness to help when and where it's needed. He most recently has worked on helping to improve our Ballroom activities and advertisements to ensure we are in competition with other services in the valley. Barry's infectious positive attitude helps us keep our spirits up in the face of any negative issue. He's a trustee on our men's board of officers, offering great ideas for building our male membership, and also keeps our membership board in the lobby up-to-date. Our Bunco group loves having him and his wife Lynn play with us on the last Monday of every month.

MEET OUR NEW CHEF EVERY SATURDAY

MY NAME IS BANDIE HARRISON AND MY PASSION IS COOKING

I am a proud mother of 4 (ages 15, 13, 5, 4) that spoils her kids with a homemade meal around the dinner table every night. I am also the Project Coordinator/Lab Manager for a DNA Lab in Pullman. My passion for cooking began at a very young age through 4-H and realizing that great food equals great happiness for all. Throughout the years I have experienced every kitchen position, starting from the dishwasher all the way up to the head chef. I have been very fortunate to work with some amazing chefs and gain a large amount of knowledge allowing for me to develop a style of my very own that I hope you appreciate. When asked "what do you cook" my reply is always..."what don't I cook" there is never a reason not to cook but to explore and desire the HUGE array of varieties there are in this world and be willing to try them all. My goal is to fill the stomach of the hungriest man yet make him want to come back for more. I actually do appreciate criticism and suggestions, it only pushes me to be better and better. As I continue to show you the varieties of foods that I greatly enjoy, please let me know some of your favorites and even some you have yet to discover. I look forward to getting to know you all and the honor of cooking for you is my pleasure!

Thank you,
Bandie Harrison

SOCIAL QUARTERS NEWS

Our Administrator Norm Roberts is turning in his keys and retiring from his Administrator position. We are currently looking for his replacement so if you know of anyone who would like to replace him and manage the Moose Activities and Bar, please let one of our officers know so we can contact him. Being administrator is a very important job, encompassing managing the bar and running the social quarters as well as other vital functions. It is a volunteer position.

Please bring an item(s) (including food) to our Annual WOTM Thanksgiving Dessert Auction.

DATE: Wednesday, November 27th. @ 6:00 PM

WE'RE CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF SERVICE!!

WHAT ABOUT THAT WOOT FAMILY DANCE LAST MONTH?

We all had a wonderful time October 11th as we said farewell to our WOOT leaders Randi Winchel & Brie Krall. The highlight of the night was when Marcos Dominguez played "GOD BLESS TEXAS" and the floor filled with young and "older" dancers. Who knew that everyone would know this very high-energy line dance. It was amazing to watch.

There was a record number of young and "old" socializing & dancing during the night. If you missed it, don't worry, we're going to try to do a Family Dance every three months. Watch your monthly newsletters for more information.

As for the future of WOOT, James Benson will continue the Thursday dances on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month, under a new name.

DON'T FORGET TO GET YOUR $1 TICKETS TO PLAY THE QUEEN OF HEARTS GAME ON FRIDAY NIGHTS. (available from the bartender) THE POT IS OVER $4,000.00 now. Plus, each winner receives $10 in Moose Bucks just for playing!

A BIG THANK YOU goes out to BILL JOLLYMORE & SANDY WEAVER for interviewing applicants for chef. BANDIE HARRISON was chosen and started serving her amazing meals on OCTOBER 26TH.

Delicious as expected.
